The festival promotes the development of puppetry and theatre arts in the Republic of Srpska and Bosnia and Herzegovina. Over the years, more than a hundred professional children's theatres from Europe and around the world have participated, making it one of the most important events for children's theatre in the Balkans.

Since 2023, the International Children's Theatre Festival has been awarded the European quality label "EuFinder", joining the ranks of Europe's leading festivals and becoming a member of the EFA – European Festivals Association.

This year's jubilee edition of the Festival is especially significant as we are celebrating 70 years since the first premiere of the Children's Theatre of the Republic of Srpska, which took place on 14 October 1956.
